Fifty-fourth Street

Just off Broadway

This is the location of the new GREAT ARROW salesrooms. Here we have our own building of four floors with plenty of floor space for showing the cars and the best equipped machine shop to be secured.

Here there is a welcome not only for every owner of a Pience Great Arrow and every prospective purchaser of one, but for every admirer of fine construction and perfect appointments in a motor car.

Recently, owing to action by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Southern and Union Pacific roads have bought 6,000 refrigerator cars, and Mr. Harriman has served notice on the Armour company that after October I his roads will not need any more of its cars, to handle California. ore of its cars to handle California

SHINE ON DIAMOND AND LINKS. Golfers of the Crescent Athlette Club Heat Lacrosse Men at Baseball.

The golfers of the Crescent Athletic Club distinguished themselves yesterday after-They played baseball with a team composed of lacrosse players and won. As drubbing to the tennis players the golfers have swelled heads and are thinking of challenging the championship baseball team of the club.

The rooters were out in force yesterday. Fred Byrnes was captain of the golfers and sob Wall, who is a star at almost any game, directed the lacrosse players. Byrnes had a directed the lacrosse players. Byrnes had a lot of men who could play easy positions, but he had a hard time finding players to do the real work. The game began with the golfers at the bat and Byrnes himself drove off from the first tee. He died at first base. Notman followed, but he drove into a bunker and then Norman Williams went to the bat. Much was expected of him, but he foozled and the side went out. The harrosse men started off with a fair wind and in the first inning eight players went to the bat and scored four runs.

Titmouse Stebbins was unipire, or referee as the golfers insisted on calling him, and he looked the part with a suit of gray clothes and a Princeton cap. He called strikes like a professional, but each call was greeted with a professional, but each call was greeted with groans.

In the second inning the golfer scored twice. Stolen bases counted well in the inning, but the disappointment was Jay S. Jones striking out. The lacrosse men added three runs to their total, but by the third inning the golfers had got used to the greens and scored five times. Williams bunted and reached first and later got home. He was much elated and declared it made up for two errors that had been charged to him. In the fifth the golfers made five more runs, which gave the lead to them, two more in the sixth and six in the ninth, making their total 20, while the lacrosse men could only score 15.

O'Rourke was the star for the losers with four runs. He pitched well, except that he was knocked out of the box in the last inning. Wall made three runs, one a home run, and part of the time he caught. For the wictory. Williams made three errors, but this, he declared, was due to having to stoop so far to reach the ground.

Regulation baseball togs were in the minority and all sorts of colors were displayed by the players. Butch Adams coached the winners. He had to use language peculiar to golf and the terms used were well understood. The score by innings:

RAVENSWOOD B. C. REGATTA. Exciting Race Between an Eight and Six Oared Barge.

The Ravenawood Boat Club held its annual regatta on Bowery Bay yesterday and a proprogramme of five rowing races and other aquatio events made a fine day's sport for programme of five rowing races and other aquatic events made a fine day's sport for the members. The finish of the races, which were half a mile, was in front of the boathouse and the crowd there and on the surrounding shore had a fine view of the sport. Six youngsters turned out for the junior single gig, which was won by Howard Smith, who never left the issue in doubt from the start. James Mulligan won the junior single shell rather easily. Soon after Mulligan, having J. Hampton as a partner, won the junior doubles. Tom Magee, who proved himself such a promising sculler by winning the association singles at the Middle States regatts recently, had H. Mack as a partner in the senior doubles and they captured first honors without much trouble. The senior four was a cinch for a crew composed of Garry Bryant, stroke: James Mulligan, 3: James Hampton, 2, and H. Rickett, bow.

The barge race was the most exciting of the day. It was an eight-oared event, but only one eight barge could be procured so another crew had to drop two men and they rowed in a six oared barge. To the surprise of the spectators the six held the eight all the way and it was the closest kind of a finish, the eight winning by a foot.

HER OWN DETECTIVE

Who Robbred Her

While shopping in West Twenty sixth treet on Saturday Mrs. Blanche Huk, a French woman, who came here from Fort de France, Martinique, caught hold of a man and accounted.

Detectives Mctvor and O'Brien went to Detectives McIvor and O'Brien went to her assistance. She explained that she had found the man in her apartments last April and that he had escaped with $1,000 in seweiry. He jimmied an entrance. The man said he was François Lusic. The man said he was François Lusic. The years old, a carpener, of 425 West Twentyninth street. The police failed to get any trace of the thief or of the stolen property and Mrs. Huk has ever since been watching for both. Megistrate Steinert held Lusic for the Grand Jury in $2,000 bail yesterday in the Tombs police court.
